Meet Liliana Basarub of Iași, Romania – DVAC's first Artist in Residence. She arrived on Oct. 14, immediately connecting with Susan Tyner, the residency coordinator, and Bill Foreman, who has generously invited her to use his studio to create a sculpture that will embody her Dayton experience. The process and idea behind Liliana's ongoing project is explained on her Web site, www.monuments-for-concepts.com. She will be drawing on her experience here to choose a concept and a group of 10 people who in some way represent that idea. We all get to vote online for the person we think best depicts the concept!

Liliana will then create a ceramic bust of the winner, which we will unveil on Tuesday, Nov. 16, at her going away party. The new concept will be announced on the DVAC Web site on Oct. 23; vote at the monuments for concepts Web site Oct. 26-31. We are grateful to those who have brought Liliana our way: CEC ArtsLink and the Ohio Arts Council; and local funders Dayton Power & Light Co. and The Lombard Fund.

JOIN OR REJOIN DVAC
by Dec. 31 & it's a tax-deductible gift for 2010!

SAVE THE DATE:
The Annual Art Auction is April 29, 2011!

ARTISTS: Delivery of artwork for the 18th Annual Art Auction will be February 3 & 5, 2011. Your "Request for Donations" email will arrive in November.

The Chrysalis Project: A Safe Place to Grow

A community art project in support of Daybreak
