Medium@Large

We believe everyone has something to offer – and something to learn. The idea of forming peer-to-peer learning groups was suggested by a member who would like to be around others who work in the same medium. We thought it would be fun to mix it up sometimes, not just keep the photographers over here and the painters over there. We like to share ideas and techniques, and we love a good potluck!

So, we're hosting this event to see who's interested in getting together to join a group, teach a seminar or lead a workshop. We imagine group projects and gatherings of all types coming out of this idea.

Join us Thursday, July 9 from 5 to 8 p.m. for the first Media Mixer, a BYOBFF (bring your own beverage, food and friends) event that is open to one and all. It's free, but we'd love to know if you plan to attend; just call the office. Please note that we have new hours: Tuesday-Saturday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

For more information, call 937 224.3822 or go online to www.daytonvisualarts.org. Large print checklists are available and sign language interpretation will be made available with 48 hours notice. The gallery is wheelchair accessible.

The Nature of a Collection

ARTIST PALATE

Saturday July 18, 7-9 p.m.

As the sun and rain turn a few individual plants into a lush oasis, so does encouragement and interest turn a few objects into a beautiful art collection.

Judge John & Mary Sue Kessler have just such an informed collection in their cool condo. Influenced by her mother – a lifelong painter – Mary Sue has filled their home with regional art, intermingled with heirloom artworks.

Some of the key pieces in the Kesslers' collection have come from Jean Koeller, whose acute visual sensitivity has made her one of Dayton's great painters. She will bring new landscapes for guests to enjoy, and both artist and host will talk a bit about the works on view and how they came to know one another.

We'll wander from living room, to deck, to screened-in porch, and enjoy a seasonal buffet of summer's bounty with beer, wine and soft drinks. Dress to stay cool and comfortable.

Hosts: Judge John & Mary Sue Kessler
Number of guests: 25
Cost per person: $50 DVAC members
$65 non-members
Reservation deadline: Monday, July 13
